Privacy Policy

Investment Advisers are required by Federal law to inform their clients of their policies regarding privacy of client information. Oak City Consulting, LLC (referred to as “Oak City Consulting,” “OCC,” the “Firm” or “Company”) appreciates the trust our clients place in us, and we recognize the importance of protecting the confidentiality of non-public personal information that we collect from them through our business relationships. The information is used to ensure accuracy in reporting and record keeping, to perform our regular course of business, and to comply with the law and our regulators. The purpose of this Privacy Policy (“Policy”) is to explain our practices with respect to the collection, use, disclosure, and safeguarding of your personal information.

We take our responsibility to protect the privacy and confidentiality of your information, including personal information, very seriously. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable legal standards to secure such information from unauthorized access and use, accidental or unlawful alteration and destruction, and other unlawful or unauthorized forms of Processing. We hold our employees accountable for complying with relevant policies, procedures, rules and regulations concerning the privacy and confidentiality of information. Keeping this information secure is a top priority for us, and we are pleased to share with you our Privacy Policy:

1. We collect non-public personal information about our clients from the following sources:
 - a. Applications (e.g., brokerage account applications)
 - b. Our Investment Management Agreement
 - c. Records of accounts under our management
 - d. Other forms, correspondence, and communications
2. The information we collect can include:
 - a. Name, address, social security number, and date of birth
 - b. Assets, income, and investment objectives
 - c. Transactions and investments with us (account values, transactions, etc.)
 - d. Other information useful to our services
3. We maintain administrative, physical and electronic safeguards to protect non-public personal information.
4. We may disclose non-public personal information about our clients and former clients to employees, independent contractors, or other third parties with whom we have contracted to perform services on our behalf, such as brokerage, legal, accounting, compliance, and data processing services, as well as in order to comply with legal and regulatory requests made to us, and to assist with law enforcement, investigations, complaints, regulatory requests, litigation, arbitration, mediation, and other legal processes.
5. Note that our Privacy Policy includes no right to disseminate non-public personal information about our clients and former clients to any external or third party for marketing or other purposes not directly related to servicing your account.
6. We may disclose non-public personal information about our clients and former clients as required by Federal, state, or local law. We will provide notice of changes in our information sharing practices. If, at any time in the future, it is necessary to disclose any of your personal information in a way that is inconsistent with this policy, we will give you advance notice of the proposed change so you will have the opportunity to opt-out of such disclosure.

Other Important Information:

- For California residents: We will not share information we collect about you with nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by law. We will not share information about your creditworthiness with our affiliates, as applicable, other than as permitted by California law, unless you authorize us to make those disclosures.
- For Nevada residents: Section 340 of the Nevada Privacy Law requires that an operator post a privacy policy, which is called a “notice” in Nevada. We are providing you this notice pursuant to state law. We will not share information we collect about you with nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by law. We will not share information about your creditworthiness with our affiliates, as applicable, other than as permitted by Nevada law, unless you authorize us to make those disclosures.
- For Vermont residents: We will not share information we collect about you with nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted by law, including, for example with your consent or to service your account. We will not share information about your creditworthiness with our affiliates, other than as permitted by Vermont law, unless you authorize us to make those disclosures.
- For Virginia, Colorado, Connecticut, Utah, Iowa, Indiana, Tennessee, Texas, Florida, Montana, Oregon, and Delaware clients: Please see additional rules promulgated by regulatory authorities, particularly each applicable state and by the Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") and Consumer Financial Protection Bureau ("CFPB"), for example. In addition, the Gramm Leach Bliley Act's Safeguard Rule has recently been amended to require financial institutions to notify the FTC within 30 days of discovering a data breach where there is the unauthorized acquisition of unencrypted customer information of at least 500 customers, unless a law enforcement exception applies. The rule becomes effective on May 13, 2024.

Oak City Consulting, LLC is an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (The "SEC") under The Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("The Act") and is committed to safeguarding the confidential information of our clients. The Company is keenly aware that cybersecurity and privacy breaches may occur as a result of security failures at third parties that have access to our systems. To minimize the risk of such event, the Company has adopted applicable written policies and procedures, including those that address the risk of harm posed by certain security compromises. The Firm shall ensure that any breach, misappropriation or loss of such information is immediately reported to the individual(s) whose information was compromised and any applicable state or federal regulatory or law enforcement agencies. In addition, we intend to notify clients of any material breaches that might put your personal financial data at risk. If, at any time in the future, it is necessary to disclose any of your personal information in a way that is inconsistent with this policy, we will give you advance notice of the proposed change so you will have the opportunity to opt out of such disclosure. We will provide notice of changes in our information sharing practices.

We want to hear from you if you have questions.

If you have any comments, questions or concerns about any of the information in this Privacy Policy, or any other issues relating to the processing of your personal information by Oak City Consulting under this Policy, please contact your Oak City Consulting contact, or:
